

Did you know?

Our nation's critical infrastructure remains an industry focus for National Steel City (NSC), recently performing steel erection of new airport terminals at Kansas City International Airport, and Pittsburgh International Airport.

For more than 30 years, NSC has served at the nexus of critical infrastructure projects. Safely performing as a go-to specialty contractor building our nation's automotive manufacturing plans across the industrial Midwest and Southeast United States and Canada.

SAFETY FIRST AWARDED IN 2022!

Thomas J. Reynolds Safety Award

The Association of Union Contractors (TAUC) with a (0) Zero DART (Days Away Restricted or Transferred) score

MCAA Award for Safety Excellence

Mechanical Contractors of America and CNA

7 BLUE-CHIP OWNERS

Ford Motor Company, Honda Motors Manufacturing of North America, Chrysler Corporation, Mercedes Benz, Toyota, GM Canada, Chrysler Corp of Canada

HONDA

Mercedes-Benz

TOYOTA

$53.2M

value of automotive plant projects

100k+tons

steel welded, erected & installed

3.8M

cars produced by these facilities yearly

6

states & provinces where plants are located